NAZIS REELING ALONG DNEIPER

German Defenses Reported
Cracking; Armies Split
Into Small Units.

LONDON, Sept. 22—Adolf Hitler's badly mauled German divisions, cracking under the terrific punishment meted out to them by the powerful Russian offensive, reeled back to their eastern defense wall on the Dnieper river today as the Red army scored new advances along the whole length of a 750-mile front.

Dangerously weakened by the incessant hammer blows of the Russians, the once invincible German legions apparently were being broken into isolated units and now, according to the latest Moscow war bulletin, were they able to halt the Red army tide.

The last formidable barrier before the Dnieper on the central front was battered down yesterday when a savage Soviet drive slashed across the Desna river line between Bryansk and Kiev.

With the capture of Chernogor, most important German base on the lower reaches of this river, the way was opened for Red army forces to strike directly at Kiev and Gomel. The latter is the gateway to White Russia.

Another thousand odd towns and villages were liberated by Russian advances yesterday while upwards of 7,000 Nazi troops were slain, many more captured, the Russian communique said.

In addition, the Soviet air force credited with 63 Nazi planes destroyed over the front yesterday, blasted concentrations of railway trains at Gomel, Vitebsk and Dzhankoi on the central front last night, setting many of them afire.

The Red army spearheads were within 18 miles of Smolensk, which was slowly being flanked on the north and south.

MUNITIONS OUTPUT SPURTS IN AUGUST

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—Munitions output spurted ahead in August scoring its biggest gain since April, the war production board reported today, and now appears to be getting its second wind.

Chairman Donald M. Nelson's monthly report said overall arms production went up 4 per cent over July, while the total of war-munitions delivered jumped from 7,373 to 7,612. Heavy bombers gained 11 per cent and fighters 5 per cent.

Deliveries of naval vessels hit a new all-time record, climbing 40 per cent over July, and total work done on naval ships, ordnance and equipment passed the one-billion-dollar mark for the first time. Destroyer-escort deliveries ran 20 per cent ahead of schedule.

Nelson has gone to London in an effort to further the integration of American and British production. The report was drafted before his departure but was not made public until today.

Large Force of Planes Over Channel Today

LONDON, Sept. 22—Two big formations of allied planes roared out over the Strait of Dover this morning to attack objectives on the continent in the continuation of the daylight air offensive.

The last large-scale raids were last Thursday when Flying Fortress bombers hit Nantua and RAF night bombers struck at the Modane Alpine tunnel.

Departure of Movie Troupe Delayed by Adverse Weather

The 94-member Twentieth Century-Fox location company which arrived in Marion a week ago today to shoot scenes for "Home in Indiana," a $2,000,000 technical production, is not expected to leave for Lexington, Ky., until Friday or possibly Saturday as a result of continued delay in production.

The troupe had been expected to finish the Marion phase of the all-color movie today and leave for Lexington tomorrow. However, the production schedule has been delayed as a result of weather conditions unfavorable for technical photography and the illness of June Haver, one of the featured players. Miss Haver has been absent from the fair-ground "lot" since Sunday because of a severe cold. The young actress' mother, who made the trip from Hollywood, reported today that June was "much better."

A number of important scenes in which Miss Haver appears must be filmed before the company departs.

HUGE FIRES SCAR NAPLES AS NAZIS BUILD DEFENSE

War Summary HESS BROUGHT PEACE OFFER, EDEN REVEALS

ITALY—Nazis set huge fires in Naples as they lay defense line around city in heavy Allied advance.

RUSSIA—Red army captures 1,000 more prisoners. 7,000 Germans smash last formidable Nazi defense before Upper Dnieper river front. Soviet spearheads advance within 18 miles of Smolensk. Russian artillery and mechanized units on rail escape from German clutches.

LONDON—Prime Minister Churchill's statement today that the full story of Rudolf Hess' flight to Britain disclosed today that more than two years ago, when Britain still was near its lowest depths in this war, the third in command of the Nazis declared Adolf Hitler wanted to call off the fight without making any "oppressive demands" on Britain.

The story of the No. 3 Nazi's fantastic flight "on a mission of humanity" to Scotland was told in an official government statement made available to commons today by Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden.

It disclosed a specific list of six peace terms, one of which stipulated Hitler's refusal to negotiate with Prime Minister Churchill, who was accused of planning the war since 1936.

What Germany wanted from Britain, Hess said, was a free hand in Europe and especially with Russia.

Upon his arrival in Scotland in May, 1941, Hess told the Duke of Hamilton that "the fuhrer did not want to defeat England and wants to stop fighting." He said he made the flight without the knowledge of Hitler.

The official statement said nothing about Hess' present whereabouts or his state of health, but it concluded:

"Hess has been dealt with as a prisoner of war since his arrival in this country and will so continue to be treated until the end of the war."

If the peace terms offered by Germany were rejected, Hess told officials, Hitler expected to destroy Britain utterly and keep the country in a state of permanent subjugation.

Before he reached Scotland in 1941, Hess told the Duke of Hamilton, he tried to arrange a meeting in Lisbon and three times previously attempted to fly to Dunkwa, Scotland, near the Duke's home. Hess said he met the Duke at the 1936 Olympic games in Berlin.

The last time he attempted a flight was in December, 1940, but he was turned back by the weather and other factors.

He did not want to come at the time of British successes in Libya, he told the Duke after he was incarcerated at Marlyhill barracks, lest it appear a sign of weakness on the part of Germany. He waited until Germany was again gaining successes—that is, in the Balkans.

Hess insisted he came to Britain without Hitler's knowledge. He told Hamilton, who interviewed him on May 11, 1941, at Marlyhill barracks, that he had come to Britain on a "mission of humanity."

Hamilton, who was a wing commander in the RAF and did not recall having met Hess before Hess flew to London and reported the conversation.

Hamilton told the authorities he believed the prisoner was Hess. This fact was confirmed by A. Kirkpatrick of the foreign office, who had known Hess and who talked to him May 13, 14 and 15.

Hess' aim was to convince responsible British persons that England could not win and its wisest course was to make an immediate peace.

Allied Air Troops Seize Town 60 Miles from Lae

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Sept. 22—Only two days after the fall of Lae, New Guinea, airborne troops of Gen. Douglas MacArthur seized a village 60 miles to the northwest while waves of American bombers wrecked airdromes, bridges, trucks and roads along a path of future conquest for 350 miles north.

The seizure of Kasipt by transport-borne Australians last Saturday night, following quickly the overrunning of Lae the previous Thursday, was disclosed in a communique today.

Appeal Renewed

National headquarters in Washington today renewed its appeal for Americans to "back the attack," making a personal appeal to each individual in these words:

"In 1939, Hitler launched his attack and the democratic way of life was almost engulfed. In 1941, Japan pulled a sneak punch—and we Americans found ourselves fighting for our lives. At first, the enemy had things all their own way, and the United Nations were on the defensive, fighting to hold back the tide, while we built up our armors for the attack. Now that phase is over. SMITH OPPOSES POST-WAR PLAN

Says Fulbright Resolution Not Constitutional Function of House.

Congressman F. C. Smith of Marion, one of the 29 congressmen who voted against the Fulbright resolution adopted in the house by a vote of 309 to 29 yesterday, spoke out against the bill when it was discussed before the vote was taken, a news report from Washington this morning stated. The resolution places congress on record in favor of United States post-war collaboration with other nations to "maintain a just and lasting peace."

Congressman Clarence Brown of the Seventh district, which includes Union county, and Congressman Harry J. McGregor of the Seventeenth district, which includes Delaware county, both Republicans, voted for the bill. The Ohio delegation vote was 19 to 6 in favor of it.

In criticizing the bill, Congressman Smith declared, "I am opposed to vote against the Fulbright resolution that congress favor the setting up of international machinery with power to establish and maintain peace among the nations of the world."

"It seems to me the lower house is attempting here to perform a function which does not properly belong to it. The subject matter of this resolution deals specifically with treaties. The Constitution definitely vests in the President the power to make treaties, but only by and with the advice and consent of the senate, provided two-thirds of the senators present concur. I think this is sufficient reason for voting against this resolution."

"The phrase in the Fulbright resolution — 'international machinery with power adequate to establish and maintain peace, among the nations of the world, — participation by the United States therein, can mean but one thing, namely, creation of an international police force, with the United States participating, for maintaining an armed peace among the nations of the world. In my opinion this is no time for the United States to be making any such commitments as this. There are entirely too many unknown factors at this juncture to safely undertake the formulation of so far-reaching and revolutionary a policy as this would involve."

"Moreover, those of us who take the position that the peace treaty should be made in strict conformity with the Constitution can hardly be consistent when at the same time we vote for the Fulbright resolution. It would be wholly incongruous to attempt to stand on constitutionalism in the

Ohio REA Seeks Rate Cuts

Statewide Committee Named To Act on Wholesale Power
Costs Meets in Marion.

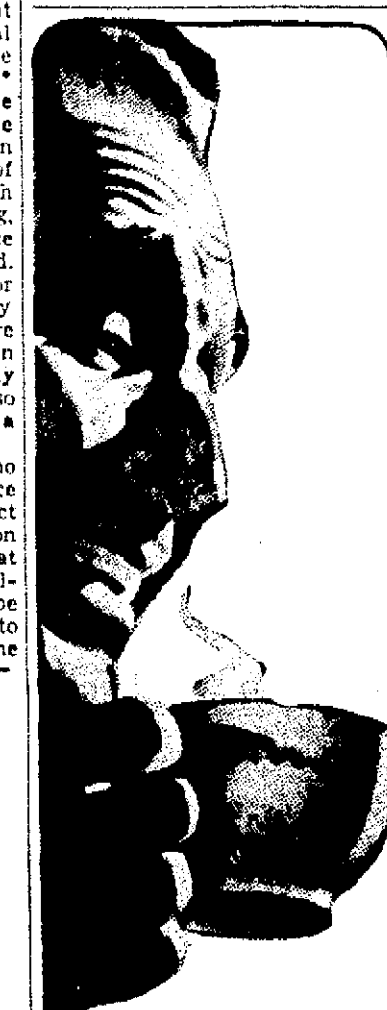

A new statewide rate committee representing the various rural electric cooperative projects in Ohio held its first meeting last Friday at the office of the Marion Rural Electric Cooperative at 203 South Prospect street to outline a program to seek lower power costs for REA organizations in the state.

Marion was chosen as the meeting place because of its central location, and it is expected further meetings will be held here. The group is to recommend a program for all the state REA cooperatives, which W. E. Joslin of Sidney, president of the Pioneer Rural Electric Cooperative, said serve 55,000 farmers and other consumers receiving power distributed at retail by the co-ops.

Difference Cited
Mr. Joslin, at the Marion meeting, declared that the price paid by Ohio's 28 REA-financed rural electric cooperatives for wholesale power purchased in 1942 averaged 27 per cent higher than the nationwide figure. He said electricity purchased from various suppliers cost the cooperatives of the state an average of 1.14 cents per kilowatt hour as compared with nine-tenths of a cent on a national basis for all REA borrowers.

Kenneth Kinsler, manager of the Marion Rural Electric Co., writing of peace on the one hand, and to vote for the Fulbright resolution on the other, since this resolution seeks to perform a duty which the Constitution vests exclusively in the President and the upper chamber.

"It may be expected the senate will uphold its constitutional prerogative."

Acid Indigestion

Acid indigestion is a common ailment which causes heartburn, gas, and discomfort. It is often caused by eating too much, too fast, or too late in the day. It can be relieved by using Scamprufe, a powerful antacid which neutralizes the excess acid in the stomach.

How To Repair Cords and Plugs

How to Fix a Cord Frayed in the Middle

1. (Remove plug from outlet. Cut frayed edges clean.
2. With electrician's rubber tape wrap each wire separately from end to end.
3. With friction tape (tire tape) bind the 2 wires together. That's all.

How to Fix a Cord Frayed Near Plug

1. Release cord by loosened screw posts inside plug.
2. Cut off frayed end of cord.
3. Strip two inches of outer fabric covering the cord. Moulded rubber cord can be split back two inches from the end. Be sure that when the cords are split no copper wires are exposed through the protective insulation.
4. Strip insulation from ends of cords to expose approximately three-fourths inch of bare wire. Twist strands together.
5. Slip cord through plug and tie cord ends into a knot. Then if cord is jerked (but you shouldn't do it) there will be less chance of pulling the copper wires away from under the screw posts. Pull knot down inside plug.
6. Wrap wires around prongs to form an S. Loop bare copper ends around the screw posts in clockwise direction. Hold in place and tighten screws firmly.

Plugs Must Fit Firmly For Good Contact

If plug slips out of outlet... just separate prongs a little with your fingers to get a tighter fit. Don't use too much pressure.

York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, California, Michigan and New Jersey. In the remaining states—Illinois, Massachusetts, Missouri and Indiana—there are more voters in favor of the proposal than against it, but the favorable vote is less than a majority.

The above figures indicate what would likely happen if there were a full turnout of voters in any referendum held in those states on the lower voting age issue. In Georgia, only about one-sixth of the state's voters took part in the referendum last month which resulted in adoption of the 18-year-old voting age by a large majority.

ANOTHER WPB CUT MADE IN NEWSPRINT

Five Per Cent Reduction To Be Followed by More Cuts.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—Blaming manpower shortages in the pulpwood industry, the war production board has cut newspaper consumption of paper another 5 per cent for the last quarter of this year and Chairman Donald M. Nelson said greater curtailment was inevitable next year.

Even with this new cut, the publishers will be using newsprint at a rate exceeding production by 24,000 tons, Nelson said. By using up reserve supplies, "a further, perhaps far deeper," retrenchment is in store in 1944, he added.

WPB held this latest cut to five per cent on the recommendation of the newspaper industry advisory committee, Nelson said.

The new cut will bring a total reduction of 15 per cent in newsprint consumed since the first of the year, WPB officials said.

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 22—A new five-year research program designed to make coal "the Cinderella of modern fuels" was announced yesterday by Bituminous Coal Research, Inc., an affiliate of the National Coal association.

Contemplating an expenditure of $2,500,000, the program seeks to develop smokeless stoves and furnaces, fully-automatic home heating and cooling, gas from coal for the nation's pipe lines, radically-improved railroad locomotives and chemical products.

The work is a continuation of research begun in 1935 at Battelle Memorial Institute, Columbus laboratory headquarters of bituminous Coal Research, Inc.

The announcement said the extended project "aims to rid the skies of coal smoke through complete combustion in apparatus ranging from small smokeless cabin heaters to large industrial furnaces." New type stoves, furnaces, and firing apparatus already are taking shape in the Battelle laboratories, it added.

We hope this battle report gets to the front!

Here's where they make the "Boom!" This Gulf unit makes toluene. Toluene makes TNT. And TNT, when placed in a shell and fired from an American cannon, makes a loud "Boom!" that heralds the downfall of America's enemies.

Another blow for Hitler and Tojo! This is a new Thermofor catalytic cracking unit built by Gulf . . . to turn out high octane aviation grade gasoline for Allied fighters and bombers. What's more, it makes feed stock for the synthetic rubber plants, too!

More power to the Air Force. This new Houdry unit, recently completed by Gulf, produces another component of aviation fuel. It's helping U. S. and Allied forces bomb our enemies to "unconditional surrender."

NOT MANY DAYS from now the giant butadiene plant for making synthetic rubber at Port Neches, Texas, will be going full blast.

The story of this plant ought to make mighty cheerful reading for our fighting men.

For it's more than the story of a battle fought and won—the battle to get the rubber we must have to fight this War.

It's a cracking good illustration of how Americans at home are backing up Americans at the front. It shows how the folks at home can get together, and by drive, ingenuity, co-operation, and an incredible amount of plain hard work, take the toughest problems this War can hand out—and lick 'em to a standstill.

12 months ago, this butadiene plant . . . the biggest in the world . . . was on the drafting board. By the end of this year, it will be turning out synthetic rubber ingredients at the rate of 100,000 tons annually.

Certainly, the story of how five of the country's great oil companies worked as one to help design, build, and operate the Port Neches plant, is as heart-warming a tale as any that has come from the Home Front in this War.

But there are others

Besides producing the vast amount of oil needed for our mechanized forces, our Navy, our gigantic war industry and our essential civilian use, the oil industry has tackled—successfully—two huge additional jobs:

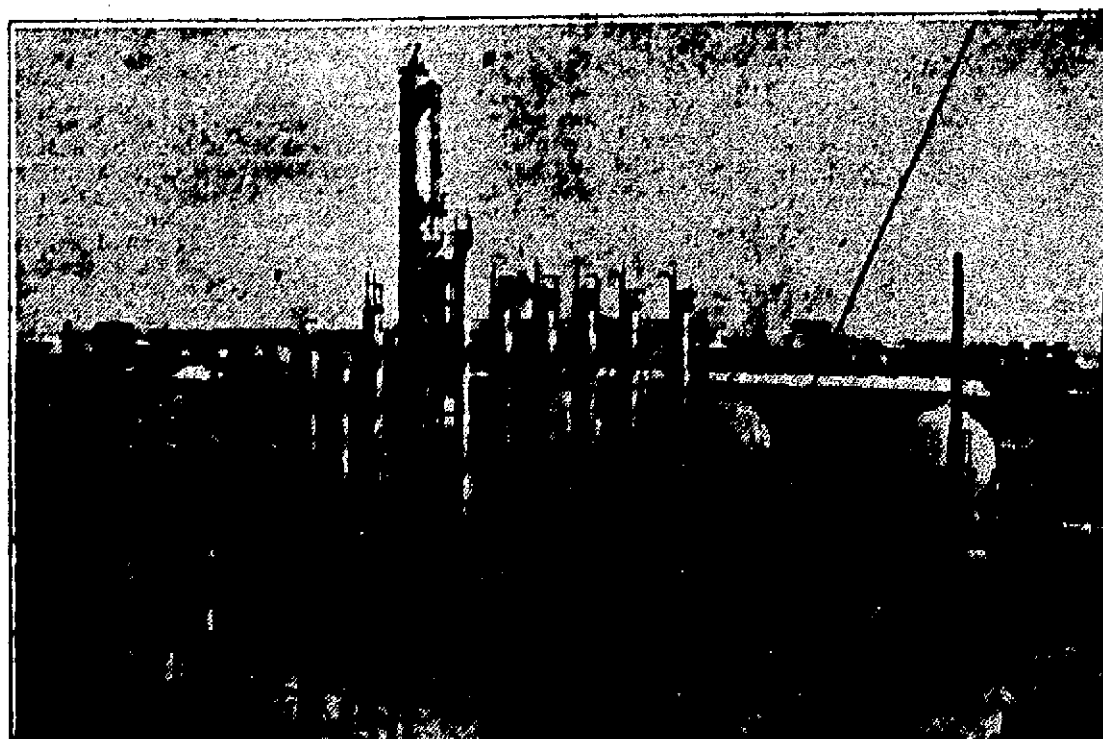

1. The production of high-octane gasoline for our young giant of an air force;
2. The production of toluene for explosives.

Supplying rubber for the wheels of our war machine—high-octane gasoline for its wings—explosives for its shells . . . can you think of three jobs more vital to victory?

As the Port Neches plant and the pictures on this page prove, all three jobs are being done—and well done. And for the part Gulf is privileged to play in the doing of them, we are both thankful and proud.

Sardinia, Without Cost

There may be difference of opinion about how much credit should be given for routing the Germans in Sardinia, but Americans are in no doubt to quote Sardinia, and Kiska, is a victory without cost in American lives. That is the main thing. Apparently, it is not an Italian lives, either, the Italian garrison seems to have frightened the Germans north, into Corsica.

The strategic importance of Sardinia is perhaps the most obvious thing on a map of the Mediterranean sea zone. It is a halfway between the north coast of Tunisia and the southern coast of France, where some day in the near future fighting French troops surely expect to stage a homecoming celebration with tons of the highest explosives ever manufactured.

It also dominates the western coast of Italy on a line running from Rome. With Corsica, which will be the scene of Germany's next "planned withdrawal" Sardinia furnishes the essential air bases for the forthcoming moves to draw the nose higher around Germany.

There is particular satisfaction in the fact Italian troops are given the credit for Sardinia. The scores in World War II will not be even until somewhere, sometime, Italian soldiers show German soldiers that when they can fight for something more inspiring than the schemes of Hitler and Mussolini there is nothing wrong with their fighting ability.

Germany's Retreat in Depth

The figures being used in Russian communiques to describe the extent of Germany's retreat are getting astronomical. This plainly is a retreat in depth without defense, but only the Germans and Russians are permitted to know whether Hitler's hordes are leaving so much of Russia behind them by choice or necessity.

There is less heard now of a withdrawal to the Dnieper. Speculation is running ahead of the retreating German armies to as far as the border of Poland. Speculation is running ahead, also, to the choice that may have to be made, perhaps sooner than later, in the Kremlin: How far will Russia pursue the enemy if he finally withdraws from Russian territory?

But no matter how engaging, such speculation never should be allowed to proceed too far from its starting place. The fact remains that the Germans have not yet crossed the Dnieper on their way back and that the optimum fighting season for 1943 is almost over. It is improbable that the Kremlin's fateful decision on how far to pursue the Germans will have to be given—if it already is made—before the Russian winter offensive begins to have effect early in 1944.

Certainly this is not a time to forget that the spaces which made it possible for the Russian army to retreat now are helping the Germans.

Wrong on Two Counts

ANY increase of social security taxes in even remote connection with general taxation for war is going to find the security-taxpaying minority of the public skeptical.

It would be wrong to take advantage of their situation in a system of payments already existing to foist an increase on them, instead of imposing some new system on the general public.

It would be wrong on another count, too. Persons participating in the social security system do not, strictly speaking, pay taxes at all. They make payments for which they receive benefits. The fact that their payments are plowed into the treasury's general fund and disbursed thereafter as tax money does not entirely do away with the legal distinction between money paid without hope of direct return and money paid to assure specified benefits when certain requirements have been fulfilled.

There is no easy way out of the government's problem of how to recover more of the national income. It is subsidizing without letting the wage earner know how much the war is going to cost him. An attempt to hide a tax boost with social security sugar would be a bid for trouble.

So They Say—

To date, save only in Russia, there has been no major combat. Silly, magnificent as that victory was, was merely a reduction of an outpost—Navy Secretary Frank Knox.

We want to recover all Chinese territory, but we have no designs on a single foot of foreign soil—Dr. T. V. Soong, Chinese foreign minister.

There is no present reason to expect that victory will come soon or cheaply. It would be far more difficult for those Germans who are sick of the war to translate their feelings into action than it was in 1918. OWI Director Elmer Davis.

We must not be satisfied with boasting about our democracy and fighting to defend it. We must also strive diligently to improve it—Rev. George Voytko, president Slovak Luther league.

The toughest battles are ahead. The going will get tougher and tougher as we crash through the outer fringes of the Axis defenses and attack their main bastions—Rear Adm. C. H. Woodward.

Memo from Perkins Office Exposes How Things Are Done in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—An example of how things are done in Washington, came in the form of a memo received by a Washington correspondent. lan supply, interior and manpower. "If we could do this in some manner, the aroma of liberalism might again reach the nostrils of F. D. R. and he perhaps would be better prepared to resist the pressure of the Jones, the National Manufacturers association, the O'Neals and the rest."

Diplomacy
 The recent under attitude of the state department toward senators has led to the suggestion that it may be worked out on a more friendly basis. A recent State Secretary Francis Sayre, it develops, flew out to see Senator Vandenberg in Michigan about United Nations food convention agreements, to which he was opposed as a member of a subcommittee. Earlier State Secretary Hull displayed a somewhat combative attitude on the same subject before the foreign relations committee. Certainly he did not fly half way across the country to see any of the opposition. This change is substantiated somewhat by other similar little incidents and may mean the state department finally realizes it must deal with the senate in the war settlement. If it does, the fight now brewing may be avoided.

Kiska Escape
 The mystery of the escape of the Japs from Kiska is explained by congressmen returning from Alaska as a rather neat trick. The Japs left one anti-aircraft battery strategically placed to keep up a fire at American bombers after the army had announced hourly bombardments would be made by us. While this was being done the Japs apparently slipped into a transport loaded 3,600 soldiers and disappeared into a fog. The ship's motors were not recorded in our detector devices.

State Department on the Spot

Must Take Responsibility for Our Place in World Affairs.

By JACK STINNETT

Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—Cited for successfully steering us through world affairs or blame for ineptitude will come to the department of state, not on the basis of what has happened to date but what happens from now on.

The State department building, flanking the White House on the west, is a relic of the last century. It is a gray, towering, roomy, old-fashioned government building in Washington and the department of state is the same way when we were plunged into war.

None of our government structure, our Army, Navy, or State department was totally prepared for global war.

When President Roosevelt started looking around for men and agencies on which to place the responsibilities of our relationship with foreign nations in this struggle, he bypassed the State department almost completely. The board of economic warfare, many phases of lend-lease, the office of coordinator of inter-American affairs, foreign relief and rehabilitation, part of the Reconstruction Finance Corp., foreign propaganda (now under OWI), and several other activities all normally

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Friday, Sept. 22, 1933. A $40,000 fire swept the basement of the H. Schaffner Co. furniture store at South Main and Church streets. Although the flames were confined to the basement, stock on the four floors of the brick structure were damaged by smoke and heat. Firemen James T. Fisher and J. B. Yazel were overcome by smoke and gas fumes in battling the blaze, believed caused by defective wiring.

C. A. Jones, receiver for the closed Marion National bank, announced that 2,400 depositors of the bank would share in a $65,000 dividend, fourth paid since the bank closed on Dec. 15, 1931.

Final figures on the June tax collection, which ended several days before, showed a collection amounting to $492,103.52, County Treasurer R. G. Summerville reported. The total levied for the June period was $555,800.

Bucyrus defeated Mt. Gilead by a score of 28-0 in a football game at Mt. Gilead.

It was Saturday, Sept. 22, 1923. As a result of the revolutionary movement in Spain, 12,000 civilian government employees were dismissed as an economy move. King Alfonso signed a decree suspending a trial by jury and Gen. Rivera, head of the revolutionary government, issued a communication to army heads demanding closer cooperation for the good of the nation.

Miss Florence G. Collins and Miller E. Sweeney, both of Marion, were united in marriage by Dr. Jesse Swank at Epworth M. E. parsonage.

The seventy-third annual Marion county fair closed by establishing a record for Saturday attendance. The crowd on Saturday was almost equal to the combined attendance of the preceding three days.

Don't forget, reminds Nation's Business, that it wasn't so many years ago when Benito Mussolini was being held up as a successful dictator because he made the trains run on time.

The magazine's editor recalls that Mussolini once asked him in an interview to tell Americans of Italy's "new spirit" and of Fascism's emphasis upon "discipline, order and obedience." The request was carried out, but in the same article appeared a message from Gaetano Salvemini, a former member of the Italian chamber of deputies, whom Mussolini jailed because of political differences. Salvemini said:

"Casual visitors in Italy, in the presence of a great moral tragedy, find that the trains run on time and thank God for Mussolini. They do not ask themselves if justice also runs on time, if liberty also runs on time, if human dignity runs on time."

Battle of Cargo Ships

Victory Over Japs Is Ours in Vital Sea Competition.

By ROBERT M. FARRINGTON

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—We have won another great naval battle against the Japs—a piece-meal battle that is still being fought, but just as real as the smashing victories at Midway and in the Coral sea.

It is the battle of merchant shipping. We are sinking about three Jap ships for every one built and this crushing rate of destruction could force the Japs into withdrawing from Wake island, Rabaul and the Marshall islands, though not without a fight.

After a heavy raid such as at Marcus island, the Japs have to send fresh supplies and equipment to repair the damage. Knowing this, our submarines lie in wait and sink the cargo ships which are now almost as precious as warships to the Japs. Because she badly needs shipping.

Honest Opinions

American Public Wants Them in Press and Would Take More on Radio, If Identified.

By DAMON RUNYON

I THINK it proper that the radio commentator express his personal opinion on matters of importance. If he states them as personal opinions, in effect, this would be the same as signing them, like a columnist.

Of course, I mean the commentator standing and responsibility who is given the principles of ethics and good sense, the moderation that the newspaper expects of a columnist or an editorial writer. I don't mean every gossip of the air who would blow his bile into the mike if he has an opportunity.

I should not say this, as it might be a blow to the radio people and react to the damage of my own profession, but the weakness of radio is its abhorrence of opinion on live issues. The only opinion you get from radio is that of the commercial announcers that the product for which they are windjamming is the greatest thing of the kind ever conceived.

A commentator who wants to put over an opinion often has to resort to subterfuges such as shading news announcements, the style of a recent beef by James L. Fly, chairman of the federal communications commission. He said he had listened to a broadcast described as a news report that turned out to be an expression of opinions.

I DO NOT know the name of the commentator. Mr. Fly had in mind, but assuming he is a man of reputation, perhaps getting big money from some sponsor for his broadcast, and a member of the straight news that radio commentators give out is old news that has already appeared in the newspapers. I think the opinions he had to sneak in would have been more interesting had he been able to deliver them in a forthright manner.

I imagine it must irk a commentator of reputation who has sound opinions that he would like to deliver to the world at large, prattling state news, though naturally I can see it is better to be irked than to get stuck at the pants pocket in between paydays. I mean, a guy can take a lot of irking at the price radio pays.

Yet it would be much nicer for the commentator and a boon to his audience if, instead of having to play a childish sort of game with his censors by bootlegging opinions to his pocket under cover of his orthodox program, it was frankly stated he was presenting his own views for what they were worth.

I think the editorializing commentator should be presented in that role alone and not in connection with reportorial functions. In other words, that the two roles should be separated, the same as in the newspapers, which give their columnists separate space and have a spot for the opinions of the newspapers themselves, but discourage editorial comment in news reporting.

It seems to me there is the element of suppression of free speech in the radio ban on personal opinions, though I suppose I ought to be glad it exists. It is one of the reasons why newspapers, fully equipped with opinions, are more widely read today than ever before in history.

The people want opinions, if only to disagree with them. Next to the front page, the most popular page in the newspapers in these times is the editorial page. As long as radio is unwilling to permit opinion in the same full free measure as the newspapers, it will remain a hollow echo, instead of a powerful voice in the air.

The time will come when the radio restrictions of today, the fight of the air magnates whenever a commentator rings in an expression of personal thought or tries to make of himself something more than a recitative robot proceeding by script, will be laughed at. It will be the time when the air will be as free for the transmission of honest opinion as it is for breathing.

Victory Bondholder

By Truman Till

See the Victory Model bondholder with the modern improvements. Made in the U. S. A. A bondholder used to be a rich you-know-what with goat, a big stone house and a yacht anchored offshore. He had a heavy gold watch chain, a gold-headed cane, a nasty disposition and was mean to little children.

So they streamlined him, rigged up a system of interchangeable parts and put him into mass production. And now we're America's answer to the Shickelgrubers, Mussolinis and Tokes along with heavy bombers, General Sherman tanks and a super-navy.

TOMORROW IS AXIS PAY-DAY— ARE WE SQUARE WITH THEM?

The Axis has a lot to be paid for Let's bury them in bonds

Pearl Harbor—dear God, can such quiet
And so soft a dawn crash into torture and sheer hell?
Men and women sleeping, or at early worship . . .
Children stirring in their beds . . .
Proud ships resting on still water . . .
Graceful planes at peace in dewy grass . . .

*Japanese! With what terrible contempt they came Scornful of the sleeping might of America
That would rouse over the torn and hurt bodies,
The still and pitiful bodies of her children.
Are YOU square with Pearl Harbor?
Speak your answer with a bond—a BIG bond.*

Manila—Bataan—Corregidor.
Don't bow your head in memory!
Clench your fists . . . Your blood should boil.
These terrible and tragic defeats are yet to avenge!
Little Japanese shaming your brothers and sons!
Rapacious little men strutting and swaggering in victory!
Are you square with Manila—Bataan—and Corregidor?
Buy a bond!—are dollars so dear to you
You'll keep them out of the fight? It's Axis pay-day!

*Lexington, Cassin, Yorktown, Downes,
Hornet, Wasp, Houston, Chicago . . . Remember?
This is Axis pay-day . . . pay them with a vengeance.
How CAN you say you are doing your part
While YOUR DOLLARS lie idle in our hour of trial?
Dig down, dig IN, patriots, to pay the Axis off.
Let this day—WITH YOUR HELP—MAKE HISTORY.*

It's EASY to Buy BONDS

You don't have to go through red tape to buy a War Bond. Walk into any store or other "issuing agent." Give your name and address, lay down your money. A form will be filled in and in no time you walk out with YOUR bond—proof that you're in the fight backing up our men at the front. A bond that cashes in for $25 in 10 years costs you only $18.75, a $50 bond costs $37.50, a $100 bond $75, a $1000 bond costs you $750. If you need it, you get your money back earlier—with interest. Buy now for a better future.

Are You a Side-Liner?

Are you in this war with both feet and your whole heart, or are you fighting a dabby little, indifferent war with only part of your heart and resources? If all of America could be aroused to press forward with the same spirit our fighting forces show, the world would rock with America's redemption of her old birthright—the land of the free and the home of the brave! How brave are you in your bond purchases? Brave enough to buy another today?

★ Persisting German and Japanese dispatches say Americans are slacking their fight at home—holding and loving their dollars needed to fight the war. "America will have devastating inflation," they say, for Americans love their cash more than their country. Let's pay off the Axis by buying bonds—and get our money back with interest. Friday, let the news declare that AXIS PAY-DAY was a great success—for AMERICA! Be sure to buy a bond tomorrow!

DATON R. HEDGES OF NEAR PROSPECT DIES

Farm Resident Passes Away in Marion Hospital.

Special to The Star
PROSPECT, Sept. 22.—Daton R. Hedges, 63, of west of Prospect, died in Marion City hospital at 3:15 a. m. today. He was a falling health man and was taken to the hospital yesterday.

Born Oct. 11, 1879, he was a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hedges. A farmer, he was a resident of the Prospect community all his life and was a member of Prospect Baptist church.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Henrietta Jacob, of Penna, O., and Mrs. Dorothy Semon, of R. Howard, a son, Fred Hedges, of Toledo, nine grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Mae Knobel, of near here.

Funeral arrangements await arrival of the son from Toledo.

OFFER STRIKE PLAN

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 22.—The Toledo board of education today offered a possible basis of settlement to three non-educational unions of employees whose strike closed city schools last Wednesday. Answering union demands for pay increases averaging $30 monthly, the board agreed to allocate any money which can be spent legally for restoration of wages and services but refused to promise any specific amount.

STALIN BACKS BOND DRIVE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Premier Stalin, acknowledging the "great support" which United States munitions and supplies are giving the Russian armies, called today for the successful financing of America's $15,000,000,000 third war loan. His personal message to Americans was read by Maj. Gen. A. I. Belyuz, chairman of the Russian purchasing commission, at the Army's "back the attack" bond show here.

TELLS HIS CUSTOMERS ABOUT ALL-BRAN

'And How It Helped Relieve His Constipation'

Here's a really enthusiastic letter you'll want to read:

"I've suffered for years with constipation. Took everything from salts to enemas, and felt run down, always taking so many pills. Then, two weeks ago, I found out about ALL-BRAN. Since I've been eating ALL-BRAN, I have needed no pills, and am starting to feel like a new man. I'm telling my customers on my milk route about your wonderful product." Mr. Leon Swartz, 1725 N. Wilson St., Phila., Pa.

What's the secret of such reports of ALL-BRAN's results?

Simply that ALL-BRAN is one of Nature's most effective sources of certain "cellulose" elements—lack of which in sufficient quantities is a common cause of constipation! They help the friendly colonic flora build up and prepare the colonic contents for easy, natural elimination. ALL-BRAN is not a cathartic! It doesn't "sweep you out!" It is a gentle-acting, "regulating" food! If this is your trouble eat ALL-BRAN regularly, drink plenty of water. See if you don't cheer its welcome relief! Insist on genuine ALL-BRAN, made only by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

Churchill Faces Squarely Question of Red Relations

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

BRITISH Prime Minister Winston Churchill today faced squarely the question of his government's attitude toward the Soviet Union, as he opened his first session of the House of Commons.

Outstanding was the question of the Soviet Union's role in the war, and Churchill's answer was a direct and unqualified statement of British policy.

Churchill said that the British government was not in a position to make any statement of policy until the war had been won.

He said that the British government was not in a position to make any statement of policy until the war had been won.

Invasion of Balkans Expected This Year

LONDON, Sept. 22.—An allied invasion of the Balkans this year, followed by a full-scale assault on western Europe next spring, now seems probable in the light of Prime Minister Churchill's war report in Commons yesterday and statements on the fighting fronts.

Despite a vast improvement in the allied shipping positions and Gen. George C. Marshall's assertion in Omaha that American military forces are ready to carry the attack to the enemy with power and force, there is a general feeling in London that a front in western Europe cannot be opened before next year unless the German army suddenly cracks wide.

Unidentified Man Dies in Fall from Airplane

SELENGROVE, Pa., Sept. 22.—Naval intelligence officers joined today in an investigation of the death of a man who fell from a high-flying airplane near here and landed in a meadow.

The plane continued westward without slowing and there was no indication of its identity, point of departure or destination.

At Philadelphia, the Fourth Naval district reported that two service identification tags were found on the body, one bearing the name of a naval officer and the other the name of a coast guardsman.

Step-Father Facing Knife Slaying Charge

DETROIT, Sept. 22.—Prosecutor William E. Dowling said a warrant would be sought today against Eryis Richards, 31, held by police in connection with the knife-slaying of Mrs. Mary Gallahan, pretty 18-year-old bride of an Army officer.

A detailed and signed confession, the prosecutor said, was obtained from Richards last night.

Dowling said that according to the confession, Richards, stepfather of Mrs. Gallahan's husband, Second Lieut. James Gallahan, stationed with a military police unit at Washington, attributed the slaying to rage over belief she was to blame for "breaking up my home."

Second Place OK WITH MACARTHUR

By The Associated Press

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Sept. 22.—Reports that the new southwest Asia command of Lord Louis Mountbatten may subordinate the command of Gen. Douglas MacArthur were recognized officially today by MacArthur in a statement expressing willingness to fill any role assigned him and strongly defending his concept of Pacific strategy.

British and American press speculation on the matter began immediately after the Quebec conference, at which Pacific strategy was discussed at length although General MacArthur was neither present nor advised.

One particular paper predicted the Mountbatten command would include the Southwest Pacific islands and that he would review Southwest Pacific strategy.

"I have no personal military ambitions whatsoever and am perfectly content in such role as may be prescribed for me," General MacArthur said today in a statement which expressed confidence that Japan should be hit hard at key holdings instead of rolled back slowly and at great cost from island to island.

The statement was issued while MacArthur's jungle troops on New Guinea were exploiting swiftly their victories at Lae and Salamaua and while heavy air blows were being struck ahead of newly-won islands in the Solomons.

MacArthur has been directing the New Guinea operations from the field and, since the new offensive opened June 30, he has had overall command of the operations personally directed by Admiral William F. Halsey in the South Pacific.

Among them is your son or brother, your husband, father or friend. He knows that the attack must go on until the white flag of unconditional surrender flies over Berlin and Tokyo. He knows that this bitter war is far from won.

What would your fighting man give for a good night's sleep under crisp, clean sheets—a hot bath and the meals you complain about?

Yanks Try Again To Snare Pennant

By The Associated Press

The major leagues settled down to business again today for two weeks of solid sending before the season closes, and the New York Yankees took up the now serious task of clinching the American league pennant.

In winning the championship six out of seven years before the present campaign, the Yankees usually have managed to nail the 1942 up long before this.

Consequently the present delay is aggravating to the Yanks and their followers.

New York needs a combination of five victories or Washington defeats to eliminate the Senators. On the form the Yanks have shown earlier they should not be beyond their powers, but the Detroit Tigers, with whom they were to open a four-game series today, have been one of their toughest foes over a period of many years.

The Yanks are not trailing any club in a season's series, but with the Tigers they are no better than even—nine victories apiece.

Hank Borowy was expected to go to the mound for New York today in quest of his sixth successive triumph and was likely to get Brodie Ruffus Centry for an opponent.

The Senators, seeking their 10th consecutive victory, were backed for the first of three night games with the St. Louis Browns while the Cleveland Indians, still mathematically in the race, opened their last eastern invasion at Boston.

In the National league the Brooklyn Dodgers tackled the St. Louis Cardinals in a battle to hold second place against the Cincinnati Reds and Pittsburgh Pirates. The Reds have a chance to gain ground, playing the last place New York Giants in a doubleheader.

FINDLAY DROPS FOOTBALL

WILDCATS DRILLING FOR HOOSIER GAME

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 22—Coach Lynn Waldorf sent his football squad through offensive drills yesterday in preparation for its season opener with Indiana Saturday night at Dyche stadium.

Thirty-six of the 41-man squad under Indiana Coach (Bo) McMillin are new to the collegiate gridiron. Center John Tavenor of Granville, O., and end Pete Pihos are about the only experienced men available. The Hoosiers were held to a 7-7 tie last week by Miami university of Oxford, O.

Notes from the midwest colleges: Coach Elmer Burnham emphasized defense in preparing Purdue for its Saturday encounter with Marquette.

Capt. Paul White still was on the sidelines with a bruised rib as Michigan practiced new plays to be used against Western Michigan Saturday.

At Iowa City Coach Slip Madigan seemed undecided on a starting lineup to face Great Lakes. Linebacker Don Faurst, Seabawk coach, drilled his men on touch-down plays to be used inside the five-yard line.

At Columbus, Coach Paul E. Brown began building up reserve strength, devoting attention to the second and third stringers who may see action against the Seahawks.

Notre Dame, which meets Pittsburgh Saturday, was cheered by a report that Abel Gonzales, triple threat star from Southern Methodist, had been ordered to report to Notre Dame Sept. 30 under the naval V-7 program.

At Minneapolis Bob Grainger, 220-pound reserve guard on last year's Gopher squad, reported for practice and immediately was assigned to the first team.

Meanwhile, Wisconsin engaged in a hard scrimmage in preparation for the clash with Camp Grant Saturday. Coach Ray Elliot of Illinois sent his team through a light dummy drill.

This contest was one of six scheduled for the 1943 season at a meeting of the Marion Junior High School Athletic association at the Central building Monday night.

Cecil Gabler, principal of Vernon Heights Junior high, was elected new president of the association, succeeding W. E. O'Grutt, Central principal. R. G. "Bob" McCracken, football and basketball coach at Vernon, was selected as new vice president with Max Sechrist, member of the Central Junior faculty, being named treasurer.

Mr. O'Grutt has been president of the association for the past two years.

After the opening tilt between Central and Edison, the following five games will be staged on succeeding Wednesday afternoons: Oct. 13, Vernon vs. Edison; Oct. 20, Edison vs. Central.

Columbus and Toledo Win Playoff Games

By The Associated Press

The Columbus Red Birds and the Toledo Mud Hens came through with victories last night in the first American association playoff games, the Red Birds thumping Milwaukee 11-1 and the Hens squeezing out a 2-1 win over the Indianapolis Indians.

The Brewers, who roared to the finish line in the regular season with 19 triumphs in their last 23 starts, coping first place, got only four hits off Ted Wilks while the third place Red Birds were getting 11 blows off three Milwaukee hurlers.

The same teams meet again tonight at Milwaukee and Indianapolis, then shift to Columbus and Toledo to finish their best-three-out-of-five series. The two winners then will play each other to determine which team shall represent the association in the "little world series" against the International league playoff winner.

LaConga Shift Proves in Test

By CHARLES ELLIOTT

The now renowned Harding grid team, in addition to being vastly improved over the 1942 edition, also is a comparatively heavy team. Brothers Herb and Bill Durtsehl, first-string guard and tackle respectively, both came in at 185 pounds. Fullback Richard Sipes is a 175-pounder. Enough of a warning for Harding, Orangemen foe of Oct. 1.

Larry Swackhammer, Shelby High basketball coach last season, has assumed head mentoring duties of the 1943 Whippet football team. He fills the place of Tommy Bender, who transferred to Fostoria High last summer. Swackhammer has 12 veterans of the mediocre '42 team to work with. The Whippets shape up much better than last year, when they were continually on the losing end.

The lineup of the Columbus West High school team, which is scheduled to test Marion Harding here Friday night, includes only five lettermen from the 1942 squads which lost to last season's Marion team, 18 to 6. The West team is light, to say the least, with the heaviest man scarcely topping the 170-pound mark.

The Cowboys are coached by Dale Rose, mentor of the Cincinnati Central vocational high school squad last year. Rose succeeds George Williams, who recently entered the U. S. Navy as a Lieutenant junior grade. Williams, as many died-in-the-wool Harding grid followers will remember, was head coach of Marion High athletic teams of a decade back.

The schedule: Sept. 25—Lowa Seahawks; Oct. 2—Missouri; Oct. 9—at Great Lakes; Oct. 16—Purdue at Cleveland; Oct. 23—Northwestern; Oct. 30—Indiana; Nov. 6—at Pittsburgh; Nov. 13—Illinois; Nov. 20—at Michigan.

Tom Hurst, regular center for Harding High last year, currently is one of the hopefuls seeking a berth on the Carnegie Tech college outfit. In other years one of nation's top collegiate squads but recently a noticeably declining power. Hurst also performed on the basketball floor for the Prexies last winter.

Al Shull is back at his old post as manager of the Palace Recreation Center bowling plant. Jim Lloyd, who served as Palace manager for about a month until last week, has gone back to the Newark Recreation lanes. Shull has been in government work in Detroit for the past several months.

Brown Describes Joe Gordon Looks for Chance To Get Even in World Series

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, Sept. 22—If that graying colonel, Alvin (Bo) McMillin of Indiana, hadn't already extracted all the paths from his "my pore little boys" phrase, you'd probably find Coach Paul E. Brown of Ohio State's Bucks bemoaning it for this year.

The big, bad Bucks of 1942, winners of the Big Ten and national titles, are just the baby Bucks this season, short of their terrific talent and facing a future which Brown describes as "confuddled."

In last year's finale, Ohio wiped the pre-flight Seahawks of Iowa by 42 to 12 to make it a one-win-loss-one season. This Saturday the Bucks meet the Seahawks in the opener. Against the 32-18 winners over Illinois, Brown will send five juniors and six freshmen, each of the latter 17 years old.

All his backs are freshmen, and his two passers have never thrown a ball in competition. An end drops back to do the punting, and a third string lineman is injected into the lineup to kickoff. None of the backs has been farther back than a line-backer on pass defense. The five juniors, only one a regular on last year's powerhouse, have been deferred in the draft because of such items as marriage, asthma, punctured eardrums and varicose veins.

Faced with all that, and nine major games in nine weeks, Brown grins.

"This will be an amusing season. No one knows what will happen, but it will be fun to watch these kids. . . most of them just three months out of high school. . . develop into big-time. They're good boys, and we may surprise a few folks somewhere along the way."

Heading the Buck attack will be Dean Sensenbaurer, 175-pound freshman half-toller and passer from Uhrichsville, O., and Ernie Parks, huge Negro halfback from Canton. Parks is the Ohio high school sprint champion, stands six feet one inch, weighs 195, and is a pass-snatcher.

All the holdovers from last year are in the line. They are Bill (Deacon) Willis, Negro tackle and first stringer last season; Gordon Appleby, second team center; Bill Hackett, third team guard; and Cecil Souder of the second stringers, and Jack Dugger, a third string tackle of 1942 who moves to end and takes over the acting captaincy.

The schedule: Sept. 25—Lowa Seahawks; Oct. 2—Missouri; Oct. 9—at Great Lakes; Oct. 16—Purdue at Cleveland; Oct. 23—Northwestern; Oct. 30—Indiana; Nov. 6—at Pittsburgh; Nov. 13—Illinois; Nov. 20—at Michigan.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 22—Out on the second base in the coming world series the Yankees will have a guy named Joe who wants to get even.

It's funny that Joe Gordon, back of the New York Yankees for five years, doesn't have a thing this year to hold him up for a star's year in the forthcoming fall.

He's been batting a .350 and has been in less than 100 double plays for the first campaign since joining the Yankees.

But for a year now Joe has been remembering the motto and the association that made him the past of last year's series—and he's going to punch out for a guy who's coming to get even. If the third stringer, he'll put on quite a show.

As you look over the infield this year and you start to hum that old tune about Ohio—the one that says it is "ground on the ends and hot in the middle." The four Yankee infielders—Ertel, Gordon, Crockett and Johnson—may be operating on "A" book in some department. They have hit 33 homers to date, have driven home 271 tallies, and for that reason alone you have to give the New York first base the top piece of cake.

What appears to be one of the biggest exciting attractions of the year, Rene LaBell, speedy French-Canadian, and Frankie Harl, also of Canada, will oppose Joe Ferrona, popular Boston Italian, and Earl Malone in a tag team match at the Armory Thursday night. To complete the card Matchmaker Les Fishbaugh has booked Larry "Babe" Kasaboski and Pat Riley of Texas for the one-hour semi-final scrap.

The Armory regulars are assured of some fast fighting and action plus in this all-star card.

Rene LaBell has taken part in some of the finest tag team matches ever staged at the Armory. He teamed with Harl here once previously and Armory mat fans are still talking about that match.

In tackling Malone and Ferrona, the Canadian huskies face two of the toughest men currently under the Fishbaugh wing. While Malone has only fought here once, his teammate has appeared here regularly for the last several years.

The semi-final match bringing together Kasaboski and Riley easily raises main-event billing. In reality, fans taking in Thursday's match will see two main go events.

Tickets may be obtained at the Armory on the night of the fights or in advance at Market & Lewis on East Center street.

Yankers are the round boys on the ends on past performances with Nick Ertel overhauling Ray Sanders on first base, involved in 100 runs against the Red Sox.

Brookie Bill Johnson, who is "RSB" is showing the old game to third baseman Wiley Kurovski, the St. Louis kid who broke up the 1942 series.

And off the figures the Yankees are plenty high in the series with Marty (The Thin Man) Marion and Lou Klein, the team man from Louisiana, putting their stuff against the best Frankie Crockett and the Red Sox.

Shifting for a look at the top branch of the inner defense, 26-year-old Walker Cooper, the job in 113 games this season—has spryness—if you ease—on sweet William Dwyer, the angels are who handle the of the tank catching chores. Right now William is waiting with a 332 batting mark for the 73 days he's been in white slacks, he's 331.

It's as true in a London garden as in a Los Angeles patio. All over the globe, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes—has become the happy bond between friendly-minded people.

"Coke" = Coca-Cola
It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke."

City P.-T. A. Sets Friday And Saturday for Annual Tag Sale

Free Clinic at City Hospital To Get Proceeds of Two-Day Project; 125 Women To Help.

Annual tag day will be observed Friday and Saturday when women of the Marion Parent-Teacher council put on their 1943 drive for funds for the free clinic and dispensary at the City hospital.

Mrs. John W. Jacoby, president of the council, is in charge of arrangements. About 125 women will sell the tags in downtown Marion from 12 noon until 9 p. m. Friday and from 8 a. m. until 1 p. m. Saturday.

The clinic, which was organized in 1927, has received financial aid from the P.-T. A. council's sale of tags since the first tag day was held in 1935. Each year the council makes a pledge of $200 toward the upkeep of the clinic giving a small amount from the treasury to make up the difference from tag sale proceeds.

MILD SELLING CUTS PRICES

Declines of Around a Point Marked Up in Today's Trading Session.

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Mild selling pressure on industrial leaders brought a general decline of fractions to around a point in today's stock market.

Air transport shares were among the heaviest losers but dealings here were relatively small.

Included in the lower bracket near the fourth hour were General Motors, Chrysler, Bethlehem Steel, U. S. Rubber, Goodrich, Sears, Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, Westinghouse, Western Union, Standard Oil (N. J.) and Texas Co. Ralls were down fractionally on light turnover. A few coppers and specialties showed fair resistance.

LOCAL GUARD MEMBERS TO HAVE CLUB ROOM

Plans for the redecoration and furnishing of a club room which would be used by members of Co. H of the Ohio State Guard and their wives were announced today by Capt. Carl Ebert. He said officers' quarters will be moved upstairs and with some rearranging a separate room will now be available for the officers, non-commissioned officers and also for each of the four squads. The 15-yard rifle range will also be redecoration and opened.

He announced extensive plans for the club room which will be something new for the local company. Amusements and forms of recreation will be made available for members and their families. Proceeds from the Saturday night dances will be used for the redecoration and furnishings.

On the first night of the local attendance campaign, the percentage was raised to 80 per cent. Capt. Ebert said that since more members were released last night, at least six replacements are necessary if the company is to maintain the strength needed for a military home defense unit.
